

IBU Junior Coach Job Spec

Experience

- Has minimum of 2 years of preparing and coaching a biathlon/nordic team at club level or higher
- Can show evidence of at least 2 biathletes they have coached that have competed at national level (regardless of country)
- Has personal biathlon/Nordic experience up to national level (regardless of country)
- Has a good knowledge of Nordic ski preparation
- Good level of English (EU rating of B2/C1)

Qualifications

- Holds a nationally recognised coaching qualification, equivalent to at least L2, but preferably L3 in the UK (regardless of country or sport)
- Holds a current first aid certificate (minimum 16 hr course)
- Holds a full and valid driving licence
- Holds an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Check or national equivalent

References

- Able to provide 2 references

Expectation

- To coach, primarily under the guidance of the GBR Head Coach, during the summer
- To lead and manage a team of athletes at international competitions during the winter
- To prepare and monitor training plans
- To assist the head coach in the planning and administration of training and race camps, and the competition season

Preference

- Holds a fire-arms certificate with the ability to add GBR athlete rifles to it
- Has experience of competition in biathlon at IBU Cup level or higher